Exciting Achievements and Change at Heart House Dallas

DALLAS — A multitude of new and exciting changes have arrived along with Spring at Heart House Dallas!

Heart House won big at the first Dallas Afterschool Partner Appreciation Awards Luncheon on Friday, May 18. As a way of thanking it's after-school partners, Dallas Afterschool recognized several partner organizations for their achievements at a luncheon sponsored by United Way of Metropolitan Dallas and CitySquare. Dallas Afterschool plans on holding the event annually.

Heart House Dallas was awarded "Best Youth Participation and Engagement", "Best Overall Quality", "Most Improved", "Best Environment" and "Full Certification of four Heart House Sites".

Heart House staff and board members pose with awards.

Along with these thrilling achievements, Heart House is proud to announce Richard Mills as the Board President. Mr. Mills was elected by the Heart House Board of Directors and previously served as Vice President. Mr. Mills is President of Austin Bridge and Road, a construction and engineering company which has been involved with Heart House for over a decade.

Mr. Mills will oversee the Heart House Board of Directors and collaborate with Lenita Dunlap, CEO of Heart House in order to continue the growth and continued success at Heart House.
